Despite the economic decline in the 19th century due to the depletion of gold resources, the city never lost the splendor of its prosperous past. Its majestic churches, elegant bridges, and ornate fountains remain exceptional examples of colonial baroque. Ouro Preto holds the privilege of being the first Brazilian site to be inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage list, highlighting its historical and architectural significance and preserving its legacy for future generations.

SALVADOR DE BAHIA

Salvador de Bahia was the first capital of Brazil and a convergence point for European, African, and Indigenous cultures. Founded in 1549, the colony developed due to sugarcane cultivation. The need for labor and its proximity to the African coast made it a hub for the slave trade. The majority of the population has African ancestry, earning it the nickname "Black Rome," characterized by vibrant African culture (spicy food and voodoo rites), dances (axé and samba), and a colorful carnival.

RIO DE JANEIRO OPTIONS

VISIT OF THE CORCOVADO

Duration: 4 hours

Corcovado is a 710-meter-high granite peak located in the Tijuca Forest, offering a privileged view of the city of Rio de Janeiro and Guanabara Bay. It is famous for being home to the Christ the Redeemer statue, one of the main symbols of the city and the country. The Corcovado railway line, starting from the Cosme Velho station, was inaugurated in 1884. With a length of 3,824 meters, it was the country's first railway built exclusively for tourist purposes. The train, older than the statue itself, transported the necessary pieces for its construction during the four years of work. In 1910, this railway line became the first in Brazil to be electrified, and the old steam trains were replaced by electric machines.

RIO DE JANEIRO OPTIONS

ASCENSION OF THE SUGAR LOAF

Duration: 4 hours

The ascension of the Sugarloaf Mountain is done by cable car in two stages: the first journey takes you to Mount Urca, where you can already enjoy a breathtaking view of the city. On the second cable car, you'll arrive at the summit of Sugarloaf. This name evokes the refined sugar blocks placed in clay molds for transport by boat during the sugarcane trade era. However, it's possible that this explanation is just a popular etymology, and the name may actually derive from the Tupi-Guarani language, "Pau-nh-acuqua," which means "great hill" in English. This peak, a monolithic granite block, is the only one among all the city's peaks to rise directly from the seaside. It is located on a peninsula at the entrance to Guanabara Bay.

RIO DE JANEIRO OPTIONS

VISITE OF THE BOTANIC GARDEN

Duration: 4 hours

Considered one of the world's best tropical botanical gardens, this peaceful haven is home to rare specimens of Brazilian flora as well as plants from other countries. It is also a highly regarded spot for numerous species of tropical birds. Established in 1808, it covers an area of 137 hectares. The garden is divided into several sections (Japanese, sensory, tropical, cactus). Listen closely! If you hear branches cracking, it's because monkeys are overhead.

RIO DE JANEIRO OPTIONS

VISIT OF THE HISTORIC CENTER

Duration: 4 hours

The center of Rio, despite some residential buildings, is primarily a commercial and tourist district, housing the largest concentration of financial institutions. Historic buildings share this space with modern skyscrapers. In addition to its numerous churches, this neighborhood boasts a rich historical heritage representing colonial, imperial, republican, as well as contemporary eras, such as the Capanema building designed by Le Corbusier, Niemeyer, and Lucio Costa. It truly feels like traversing through time!

RIO DE JANEIRO OPTIONS

VISIT OF THE BABILONIA-CHAPÉU-MANGUEIRA COMMUNITY

Duration: 4 hours

Located on a hillside, this favela is situated in the Copacabana neighborhood and was the opening scene of Marcel Camus' film "Black Orpheus." It is a small community with 3,000 residents. You will stroll through the winding alleyways of the favela and have the opportunity to admire Copacabana Beach, Sugarloaf Mountain, and Corcovado from different angles. It was pacified in 2009, meaning it is no longer under the control of traffickers. To access the community (located on a hillside), clients will use mototaxis that the community residents themselves use (ride time: 2 minutes)

PETRÓPOLIS SUGGESTION

VISIT TO THE CITY OF PETRÓPOLIS

Petrópolis, known as the "Imperial City" of Brazil, is a Brazilian city located in the center of Rio de Janeiro. It is 68 km from the city of Rio de Janeiro. The city is named "City of Stone" in honor of Emperor Pedro II, the second monarch of the nation and son of Pedro I of Brazil. It served as the summer residence of the Empire and aristocrats in the 19th century and was the official capital of the State of Rio de Janeiro between 1894 and 1902.

DISCOVER SÃO JOÃO DEL REI

Discovering São João del Rei is a plus. Here, colonial-era religious traditions are still very much alive in its churches, processions, and the faith of its inhabitants. São João is unique in that it has managed to preserve a colonial village surrounded by a vibrant commercial hub, making it possible to appreciate the urban evolution of a wonderfully preserved colonial city in harmony with the eclectic architecture of the 19th and 20th centuries.

OURO PRETO SUGGESTION

WALKING TOUR OF OURO PRETO

Immerse yourself in history with a walk to explore the city's key landmarks, such as the Church of Saint Francis of Assisi, built by the famous Aleijadinho, the Church of Nossa Senhora do Pilar, the Museum of Mines, the Museum of Oratory, and the Opera House. End the experience with a regional lunch to taste "Feijão Tropeiro" and "Tutu à Mineira."

OURO PRETO SUGGESTION

VISIT TO MARIANA AND EXPLORATION OF AN OLD GOLD MINE

A descent into an old gold mine will complete your visit to this region. The richness of this past wasn't baroque for everyone. Today, this recreational site is highly appreciated by curious visitors. The old, rustic wagons used to descend into the mine galleries promise a thrilling experience!

DISCOVERY OF INHOTIM

This institution is both a major contemporary art center and a botanical garden, combining the beauty of nature with that of art, as well as serving as a research center. The institute is said to have the largest collection of contemporary art in the world and the largest open-air museum in the world. Designed by the renowned Brazilian landscaper Roberto Burle Marx, the botanical garden spans 1,200 hectares (with one hundred hectares open to the public), featuring artificial lakes and various animal species. It houses the planet's largest collection of palms (1,500 varieties), as well as thousands of orchids, bromeliads, cacti, and giant water lilies (over 4,300 recorded tropical plants).

SALVADOR OPTIONS

VISIT THE LOWER CITY

Duration: 4 hours

The Church of Nosso Senhor do Bonfim, where the famous Bonfim ribbons are distributed, is one of the most traditional churches, dedicated to Senhor do Bonfim, the patron saint of Bahia and a symbol of religious syncretism in Bahia. Every year, the Bonfim Church Staircase Washing event turns into a grand celebration. It starts with a procession from the Church of Our Lady of Conception of the Beach, patroness of Bahia, to Bonfim. A large crowd joins in the festivities. Visit Mercado Modelo, inaugurated on December 9, 1912, which originally offered a wide range of fruits, vegetables, meats, flours, etc. Today, it is the largest craft market in Brazil's Northeast.

SALVADOR OPTIONS

STROLL THROUGH THE HISTORIC CENTER: PELOURINHO

Duration: 4 hours

The Pelourinho neighborhood, located in the historic center (upper town), features a baroque colonial architectural ensemble classified by UNESCO as a cultural heritage site. Warmly called "Pelô" by its residents, this neighborhood was primarily residential and home to the most beautiful mansions until the early 20th century. Besides its historical aspect, it is also a vibrant cultural hub of Bahia. The tour includes a visit to the Church and Convent of São Francisco, built in the 17th and 18th centuries, and considered one of the most unique and rich expressions of Brazilian baroque.

SALVADOR OPTIONS

SALVADOR BY NIGHT: MIGUEL SANTANA SHOW & DINNER

Duration: 4 hours

Located in Pelourinho, the Miguel Santana Folkloric Theater opened its doors in 1988 and is now considered the only dance company dedicated to folklore in Brazil.
