CREATING EMOTIONS

Brazil Sensations a 100% green DMC

Brazil Sensations is the first Brazilian DMC to engage itself in the carbon offset of its activities.

Besides our daily gestures to minimize our impact to our planet, Brazil Sensations decided not only to be ecological and socially sustainable, but as well to reinforce the regenerative tourism.

Following a long expertise by Agroforestry Carbon, our CO₂ emissions are compensated in the form of contribution to certified projects in Brazil.

In line with the UN's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), our actions are concentrated in reforestation, preserving forests and its biodiversity as well as renewable energy sources whilst assuring the protection of vulnerable local populations.

These days, it has become difficult to ignore the impact that our tourism projects in Brazil can have to the environment. It is in this context that Brazil Sensations offers the possibility of a solution to every project such as to propose a carbon compensation of each and every journey to our beloved country.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

- Recovery of degraded zones
- Increase in biological carbon sequestration
- Increase in the quality of the soil
- Source water protection
- Increase in biodiversity
- Increase in the area 's productivity

SOCIAL IMPACT

- Diversification of cultures and productions
- Generation of a resilient economy
- Assuring food security
- Reinforcement of local productions
- Foods with higher nutritional value
- Better quality of life to farmers

SALVADOR

Salvador is also known as Brazil's capital of happiness due to its countless popular outdoor parties, including its street carnival. The first colonial capital of Brazil, the city is one of the oldest in the Americas. The African influence in many cultural aspects of the city makes it the centre of Afro-brazilian culture. The historical centre of Salvador, frequently called Pelourinho, is renowned for its Portuguese colonial architecture with historical monuments dating from the 17th to the 19th centuries and was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1985.

SALVADOR OPTIONALS

VISIT TO THE LOWER CITY

Duration : 6 hours

The Nosso Senhor do Bonfim Church, where the famous Bonfim ribbons are distributed, is one of the most traditional churches dedicated to the patron saint of Bahians and symbol of the religious syncretism of the state. Each year, the washing of the stairs of the Church of Bonfim, gives rise to a great celebration. This experience takes you to pay a visit to the Mercado Modelo, inaugurated on December 9, 1912, which at the time offered a wide choice of fruits, vegetables, meats, flour, etc. Today it is the largest artisanal market in northeastern Brazil. Lunch at a local restaurant.

CULINARY CLASS ON BAHIANA CUISINE WITH LUNCH

Duration : max 04 hours

How about getting to know a bit of Bahian culture through gastronomy? This proposal takes place in the workshop of a Bahian visual artist. It includes the participation of guests in preparing a rich and flavorful lunch, with an appetizer, main course, and dessert for the small group participating in the class.

Included are 01 water, 01 fruit juice, and 01 espresso per person.

SALVADOR OPTIONALS

Percussion Class

Duration : 01 hours

A percussion course offers an immersion in Brazilian musical culture. Students learn the rhythms of samba-reggae and capoeira. Supervised by local musicians, they discover traditional techniques and the history of the instruments. It is an enriching experience that combines learning and practice

CAPOEIRA CLASS

Duration: 01 hours

Capoeira is an Afro-Brazilian martial art that is believed to have its roots in the combat techniques and dances of African peoples during the time of slavery in Brazil. It distinguishes itself from other martial arts through its playful and often acrobatic nature. The feet are widely used during combat, although other parts of the body can be employed, such as the hands, head, knees, and elbows. The "players" can support or balance themselves on their hands to perform kicks or acrobatics. In various forms, capoeira is played and/or fought at different levels on the ground and at different speeds, usually accompanied by instruments, songs, and clapping.

SALVADOR BY NIGHT : MIGUEL SANTANA'S FOLKLORIC BALLET

Duration : 4 hours

Located in Pelourinho, the Miguel Santana folk theater opened in 1988 and is considered the only dance company dedicated to folklore in Brazil. On several occasions, this troupe of dancers has won internationally renowned prizes. After the show, dine at a local restaurant in the historic center.

The folkloric ballet is opened on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
